

2012 EUSA Haas Fund Fellowship Competition

The 2011-2013 EUSA Executive Committee is pleased to announce the 2012 EUSA Haas Fund Fellowship Competition, an annual fellowship for graduate student EU-related dissertation research. Thanks entirely to contributions to our Ernst Haas Memorial Fund for EU Studies, launched in June 2003 to honor the memory of the late scholar Ernst B. Haas (1924-2003) we will offer at least one unrestricted fellowship of $1,500 to support the dissertation research of any graduate student pursuing an EU-related dissertation topic in the academic year 2011-2012.

Please note the following stipulations for applicants, who must:

- be pursuing the doctoral degree (PhD) at an accredited institution in any country;
- be writing a dissertation in English;
- have an EU-related, doctoral dissertation topic approved by the professor who will supervise it; and,
- be able to demonstrate clearly the relevance to EU studies of the dissertation topic.

Applicants for this Fellowship should submit:

- (1) A one-page letter of application that specifies how the fellowship would be used;
- (2) A CV;
- (3) A 500 words précis of the project that also explains its relevance to EU studies; and,
- (4) Ask for two letters of support to be sent directly to EUSA. These letters should be from professors serving on the student's dissertation committee, and one should be the chair.

Please send applications to eusa@pitt.edu and use the heading "2012 E.B. Haas Fund Fellowship competition." The firm deadline for applications to be received in the EUSA office is January 6, 2012. The successful applicant will be notified by February 17, 2012 at the latest, and will receive the grant soon thereafter. The fellowship will be paid in one lump sum by check and in US dollars only.
