

Announcing the 2025 EUSA Award Competitions

2025 EUSA Haas Fund Fellowship Competition

The EUSA Executive Committee is pleased to announce the 2025 EUSA Haas Fund Fellowship Competition, an annual fellowship for graduate student EU-related dissertation research funded by contributions to our Ernst Haas Memorial Fund for EU Studies, launched in June 2003 to honor the memory of the late scholar Ernst B. Haas (1924-2003). We will offer at least one unrestricted fellowship of $2,000 to support the dissertation research of any graduate student pursuing an EU-related dissertation topic in the academic year 2025. Please note the following stipulations for applicants, who must:

- be pursuing the doctoral degree (PhD) at an accredited institution in any country;
- be writing a dissertation in English;
- have an EU-related doctoral dissertation topic approved by the professor who will supervise it;
- be able to demonstrate clearly the relevance to EU studies of the dissertation topic.

Applicants for this Fellowship should submit:

- (1) A Curriculum Vitae;
- (2) A 200-word description of the dissertation research project that explains its relevance to EU studies;
- (3) A 100-word statement that specifies how the fellowship would be used.
- (4) Two letters of support to be sent directly to EUSA. These letters should be from professors serving on the student's dissertation committee, and one should be the chair. They MUST be sent as a pdf attachment to eusa@pitt.edu with the subject line "2025 Haas Prize."

Please submit applications online at <https://www.eustudies.org/about/eusa-prizes/haas-fellowship>. The firm deadline for applications to be received is November 4, 2024. The fellowship will be paid in one lump sum by check and in US dollars only.

EUSA Wade Jacoby Prize for Best Dissertation

The EUSA Prize for Best Dissertation in EU studies will be awarded in May 2025 to a dissertation written in English on any aspect of European integration between September 1, 2022 and August 31, 2024. The student must have defended and deposited the final dissertation and graduated during this period as well. Only one dissertation per department at an institution may be nominated for this prize. The prize carries a cash award of $200. Please submit applications online at <https://www.eustudies.org/about/eusa-prizes/eusa-best-dissertation-prize>. The dissertation should be uploaded there, together with a short cover letter from the Department Chair. The deadline is November 4, 2024.

EUSA Best Book Prize

The 2003-05 Executive Committee of the European Union Studies Association established the EUSA Best Book Prize, to be awarded at each biennial EUSA conference, for a book in English on any aspect of EU studies and published in the two years prior to the EUSA Conference. This prize carries a cash award of $300 for the author(s). For the 2025 EUSA Book Prize, books published in either 2023 or 2024 will be eligible. To be considered, authors or publishers MUST submit three (hard) copies of the nominated book (with a letter of transmittal) – one directly to each member of the EUSA Book Prize committee (mailing addresses below), submit an electronic copy to usa@pit.edu, as well as submit an application online at <https://www.eustudies.org/about/eusa-prizes/eusa-best-book-prize>.

All of these steps must be completed for the book to be considered. The deadline for receipt of the books by the committee members is November 4, 2024. The names and addresses of the committee members will be announced here shortly: <https://www.eustudies.org/about/eusa-prizes/eusa-best-book-prize>.

Kaija Schilde
121 Bay State Road
Boston, MA 02215

Stephanie Anderson
School of Politics, Public Affairs, & International Studies
Dept. 3197
University of Wyoming
Laramie, WY 82071

Sara Wallace Goodman
University of California, Irvine
5257 Social Science Plaza B
Mail Code: 5100
Irvine, CA 92697